

Emma: the second conditional – Transcript

(I can't guarantee this includes all small words and sounds spoken.)

Words within [] and in italics are spoken by the interviewer.

Umm...Well, I would do different things. Depending on the amount... [A lot] Split it between money for me and money for others. Though I would definitely donate a great part of that money to different causes. I would probably ask my friend Alex for her opinions on which charities are good and trustworthy to donate to.

Umm and the money I would use for myself, I would love to have umm a chef. My personal chef. [A personal chef!] Yes, so not...Not just someone who cooks but like a nutritionist. Someone who...you know, goes to the market and gets all the fresh fruits and erm juices them and makes...you know, super, healthy meals 3 times a day for me and my family [I think we all need one of those]. That would be a big, big splurge.

And then, I would also travel a lot. Yeah. [Are there any particular places that you would go to? Or just everywhere] Umm well, I have been to many places, which is very, very cool, but I have never been to South America yet. To any of the countries there. So, I would love to travel to South America [A South American tour]

Yeah. And maybe...Maybe Africa, also. [Yeah, sounds good. And would you go alone or would you take the whole family?]

Umm...hmmm that's a good one. I would probably split it up between umm part of the trip I would have my family with me and part of it I would enjoy alone.
